

Giant's Rib Discovery Centre hosted a summer solstice fundraiser on June 20 at Parks Canada Discovery Centre on the Hamilton waterfront as the sun set over the Escarpment.

The Coalition on the Niagara Escarpment hosted its annual Escarpment Celebration Day in Tobermory on June 21. Standing in front of one of their new road signs are, from left, David Mederios, Chris McLaughlin, Don Wilks, Alyson Thompson, Bob Barnett, Jean Hilborn, Terry O'Sullivan and Tom Boyle. PHOTO BY PHYLLIS LEE.

On July 16 Nikki May, far right, of Carolinian Canada Coalition, launched "Caring for Nature in Niagara" at Henry of Pelham Family Estate Winery in St. Catharines. Standing at the winery's new wetland biofilter pond built to clean drainage water, are centre, Matthew Speck, viticulturist, and left, Rob Diermair, watershed restoration coordinator with Niagara Peninsula Conservation Authority.

Viewers Invite You!
Here are some upcoming events that our readers wish to bring to your attention:

where Escarpment Views has been in recent months. Future next time, just send us an invitation!

Marcus Buck, right, an expert on karst geology, stands at the entrance to Pottruff Cave, one of the highlights of the Eramosa Karst Conservation Area, which was formally opened as part of Hamilton Conservation Authority on June 20. Donations were presented that day to Hamilton Conservation Foundation, of $750,000 from Heritage Green Community Trust, and $50,000 from Aldo DeSantis of Multi-Area Developments Inc. Above left is Bill Uhler, whose father used to own and farm the land that is now part of the new conservation area.

Brad Linton of Roseneath, Ont. took part in the walking plowing competition of the World Percheron Congress Plowing match at Nurseland Farms near Georgetown on July 23.

Burlington's Community Living Charity Event

Sunrise Gallery, Hamilton Sat. Oct. 18 Reception 2-5 pm

Raffle of a work of art by Ann Kloppenburg, proceeds to Burlington Association for Community Living. Call 905 549 5888. Exhibition continues to Nov. 9.

United Way of Milton's

A Town and Country Christmas House Tour Nov. 21 & 22

Six houses will be decorated with festive trimmings by local professionals.

Tickets on sale Oct. 14. Call 905 875 2550.