

Please see www.NEViews.ca for more photos & listings!
Photos by Mike Davis except where noted.

The weekend of June 1 & 2 was the 200th anniversary of the Battle of Stoney Creek, commemorated at Battlefield Park. ▶

◀ Georgetown Farmers' Market celebrated its 20th anniversary on June 8 with a cake created by Victoria Julien and a painting by Jan Zimmerman. Cutting the cake is Wendy Farrow-Reed, manager of Georgetown Central B.I.A.

The 38th Annual Georgetown Highland Games were also held on June 8. ▼

▲ Summer was the season of garden tours. Dundas (above) held its "Secret Gardens" 20th Anniversary Tour on June 2 and Georgetown (right) hosted "Through the Garden Gate" on June 9. ▶

From right: Brian Milne, mayor of Southgate, Justus Martin of Kountryroad Farm and Gary Gingras of Cedars of Lake Eugenia Cottage Resort, at the launch of the Horse and Buggy Trail in Holstein Park on June 14. Photo by Linda Reader. ▶

▲ High Flying Canines Disc Dog Club gave a demonstration of dog acrobatics and agility at Caledon Day in Caledon East on June 15.

Giant's Rib held its annual Summer Solstice celebration and fundraiser on June 20 in Dundas. ▶

Speaking at the launch of Cootes to Escarpment EcoPark at Royal Botanical Gardens on June 22, was the Hon. Ted McMeekin, MPP for Ancaster-Dundas-Flamborough-Westdale, whose riding includes Cootes Paradise. Photo by Josh Gordon, Coalition on the Niagara Escarpment. ▼

Michelle Bennett of BurlingtonGreen invited people to taste the variety of salad greens growing in the Central Park's Community and Victory Gardens on a tour held on June 23. ▶

The summer version of A Taste of Burlington was launched at the Burlington Performing Arts Centre on June 25 with around 21 restaurants and food stations serving salad, mains and dessert on two floors. BurlingtonGreen organized the waste diversion plan. West Plains Bistro won the People's Choice award. ▶

Eric Landman of Grand Valley participated in a drystone walling event in Alton on the Canada Day weekend. A park was created where some buildings had been demolished. ▼

▲ Gloria Hildebrandt, editor of Niagara Escarpment Views, waiting for families to arrive at the first Niagara Escarpment Festival, Biosphere Bash, held at Ball's Falls Conservation Area, Jordan, on July 7.

◀ South Grey Museum, Flesherton, received a federal grant to install a fully accessible washroom as part of the "Making Our Museum More Accessible" (MOMMA) Project. Having fun with the toilet paper roll ribbon-cutting ceremony on July 13 are from left, Bill Walker, M.P.P. for Bruce-Grey-Owen Sound, Wayne Fitzgerald, Mayor of Grey Highlands, Kate Russell, Manager of South Grey Museum, Naomi Norquay of York University and Larry Miller, M.P. for Bruce-Grey-Owen Sound.

Events Along the Rock

▲ On July 13, Arts on Ten in Flesherton hosted a day-long grand opening celebration of the gallery and quirky backyard Cuckoo Valley Garden filled with paintings and spectacular assemblages. From left, Anna-Maria Dickinson, Jennifer Stenberg and Holger Majorahn, the resident painters.

▲ Food and art combined in Cuisine-Art at Alton Mills Arts Centre, Caledon, July 19-21. One activity was chefs demonstrating cooking techniques. Funds raised will go toward rehabilitating Alton Millpond.

The 19th Annual Collingwood Elvis Festival was held July 25-28. Here on July 27, a tribute artist performs outdoors at a free concert on Hurontario St. ▼

▲ A meeting of The Council of the Federation was held at Niagara-on-the-Lake for premiers and their delegations, July 24-26. Above, Council chair and host Premier Kathleen Wynne attended a reception at Niagara College on July 24. Photo courtesy of Queen's Printer for Ontario, 2013.

