

EVENTS ALONG THE ROCK

Photos by Mike Davis except where noted.

▶ Honourable Michael Chong, MP Wellington-Halton Hills, and Kathy Gastle, president of the Norval Community Association, on the parade route toward opening ceremonies of the Norval-on-the-Credit Canada 150 Celebration on June 3 at the Lucy Maud Montgomery Heritage Garden in Norval. Photo by Rosaleen Egan.

◀ Downtown Orangeville rang with the music of the 15th annual Blues and Jazz Festival, June 2, with musicians performing on Broadway and in many other locations.

▶ Manitoulin's Cup and Saucer Trail, which had been suddenly closed without warning, was swiftly reopened on June 8 at a new entrance. Celebrating the opening are from left, Alan MacNevin, mayor of Northeastern Manitoulin and the Islands, Roy Jeffery and Bob Barnett, both with Escarpment Biosphere Conservancy. Photo provided.

▲ Prime Minister Justin Trudeau kayaked on the Niagara River at Niagara-on-the-Lake on June 5. Here he leaves the river after his paddle. Photo by Adam Scotti.

▶ A Day On The Bridge was held on Hamilton's McQuesten High Level Bridge on June 11 to raise funds to buy and protect land for Cootes to Escarpment EcoPark System.

EVENTS ALONG THE ROCK

Photos by Mike Davis except where noted.

▲ On June 15 Robin Lee, left, president of Lee Valley, prepared to celebrate the opening of a new retail location in Niagara Falls, with Jason Tasse, chief operating officer and Thomas Still, manager of the Niagara Falls store.

▲ Michele Paquin-Felske, second from left, owner of Chompin' At the Bit Bar & Grille in Rockwood, celebrated the restaurant's one-year anniversary on June 17.

▲ On June 22, Joanna Roselli, second from left, received a scholarship from The Burlington Art in Action Group which was presented by Darlene Throop, chair of the Art in Action scholarship committee. On left, Rocco Di Ianni, principal of Assumption Catholic Secondary School; on right, Gina Giannotti, guidance counsellor, Assumption Catholic Secondary School. Photo by Ian Cowling.

▲ Andrews Scenic Acres in Milton drew a crowd to their Summer Bash berry festival on July 22 and 23. Photo by Chris Miller.

◀ Wellington Water Watchers helped host Waterstock at Erin Fairgrounds on June 11 to demonstrate support for public control of municipal water and the phase out of the bottled water industry.