

OUR FIRST EVER
PHOTO CONTEST
Winners

To celebrate our 10th anniversary, Niagara Escarpment Views held our first photo contest.

It was free to enter for subscribers, and the entry fee for non subscribers was $20, but for that, they are getting a year's subscription to the magazine.

As well, all who entered the contest have their photos published on our website at www.NEViews.ca and had their work promoted on our Facebook page. We thank all who entered the contest for sharing their beautiful work.

Criteria & Judging

We asked for great views of the Niagara Escarpment, but preferred scenes we haven't seen often before. The judge was an unbiased professional in the field of visual arts, who has no acquaintance with any of the entrants, and made the choice of the winners.

PRIZES

1st Prize — A week's accommodation, date to be determined, at the 350-

▲ Photographer's statement:

This canoe is sitting by a wetland pond near Niagara College in Niagara-On-The-Lake overlooking beautiful colourful fall leaves on the Escarpment near Woodends.

Judge's comment:

This picture made me stop and "look" at it. I love the mix of colours, the pop of orange and burnt red in the background and the blue fluffy sky drew my attention.

acre Alvar Bay Nature Reserve, Tobermory, in a new, solar-powered, off-grid cabin with kitchen, potable water, shower room with toilet. Located on three km of protected Lake Huron shore.

Value: $800. Prize courtesy of Escarpment Biosphere Conservancy

2nd Prize — Gift certificate for $100 from Home Hardware, good at any Home Hardware in Canada. Prize courtesy of Home Hardware.

3rd Prize — A Niagara Escarpment Views gift package including a set of blank notecards, a NEV fan-dana, a free annual subscription, plus $50 off an ad of any size in the magazine.

▲ Photographer's statement:

A familiar spot, yet still awe inspiring every time.
Overhanging Point in Bruce Peninsula National Park.

Judge's comment:

I love rocks and I love the colour of the blue water.

◀ Photographer's statement:

Georgian Bay Shoreline-
One of my favourite spots in the park. The beautiful shoreline allows me to enjoy the rugged Escarpment and highlights the picturesque colours of Georgian Bay.

Judge's comment:

This image is a great depiction of Georgian Bay shoreline.
I love the trees growing tall
up and out of the rocks.