

We would like a chance to win tickets to Canada Blooms. P.S. Just wanted to let you know, we received our spring issue of NEV. The articles & pictures regarding the Bluebirds & Chorus Frogs were so interesting! So wonderful to read about these small creatures & how they contribute to our well being. Keep up the amazing work! Thank you.

I picked up a copy of your magazine at Home Hardware in Georgetown, and I have to tell you that it's just beautiful. Congratulations on your tenth year publishing, may you have many more years of treating us to this fine publication.

Ray Eckert, Georgetown

Every time we pick up a new copy of "Escarpment Views," we say we must send in a subscription – at last. What a wonderful job you do. Congratulations and thanks.

Picked up your magazine at my local Home Hardware and was really enjoying it until I saw the ad for MPP Sam Oosterhoff. Was surprised to see the controversial MPP's advertisement as his views are homophobic to say the least. As a parent and ally in the gay community I'm sure I can't be your only offended reader.

Your 10th anniversary edition was great, and my latest spring issue with the beautiful cover, and special issue on gardens is amazing. I loved every article, especially what I learnt about the eastern bluebirds in Ontario. My husband and I will certainly be doing the cycle tour through Pelham, when our weather gets warmer. Thank you for a great read, and I always look forward to the next issue. I hope to see you at one of the garden tours this summer Gloria. Enjoy your spring...

Check it out! Our beautiful Town of Pelham is featured in the current edition of Niagara Escarpment Views. The article is written and photographed by Hamilton writer, Helen Powers. The vibrant Spring photos are a great taste of what is soon to come here in #PelhamWOW! Congratulations to publishers, Gloria Hildebrandt and Mike Davis on the celebration of your 10 years of publication. We just love your gem of a magazine.

[Editor's note: we were Cc'd on the following email to Lee Valley.]

I live in Ottawa and am an active Lee Valley customer. I also subscribe to Niagara Escarpment Views as my daughter and family live in Hamilton and we find it a very interesting and relevant magazine to our interests. I see that Lee Valley has begun advertising in the magazine, and I think it will be a good fit for your clientele. However, I note that your ad promotes only the Niagara Falls store. Yet your Burlington store is also fully in the magazine's coverage and circulation area, and arguably the Waterloo and Vaughn stores serve other readers. And that's not taking into account the Orangeville, Owen Sound and Manitowaning stores you'll be opening soon ...

Doug Yonson, Ottawa

Thank you for including the children's garden [by Rosaleen Egan] in your most recent publication of Niagara Escarpment Views! The article and the photos are most impressive. You should be proud of your efforts. Is there any way to get extra copies? It would be wonderful to take copies to PEI this June to the bi-annual LMM conference.

Happy 10th anniversary – and many more! Enclosed is my payment for a two-year subscription. Thank you for the enjoyment and education that comes with each copy of Niagara Escarpment Views. Wonderful!

We are just about out of the copies delivered to Lakeshore Antiques & Treasures! Customers are enjoying [Niagara] Escarpment Views.

Margaret Caswell, Niagara-on-the-Lake

I picked up the spring issue at the Copper Kettle Pub in Glen Williams and enjoyed it very much. Looking forward to getting more issues in the mail.

Our group, Friendship Force Niagara, is hosting 15 ambassadors from Oita, Japan the first week of May. I have a copy of your Winter edition which has a centrefold of Niagara Falls. I would like to know if and where I can obtain 15 copies for our incoming ambassadors. I have tried St. Catharines and Hodgkinson Home Hardware; however, they do not have copies left. I am really hoping you have copies for me.
