

Inspired by the Bruce Trail

Four artists with the Burlington Arts Association who have a passion for nature, the Niagara Escarpment and the Bruce Trail, have organized an art show and sale to support the Bruce Trail Conservancy (BTC). Anne More, Cathy Lorroway, Janet Jardine and Victoria Pearce will donate 30 per cent of the proceeds from the sale of paintings in the show to BTC.

Anne More: As a painter I want to share my interpretation of the beauty that surrounds us. I work with oils and a vibrant palette to capture the rich hues found in nature with its dramatic interplay of light and shadow. We must preserve our green spaces. Website: annemore.com

Victoria Pearce: Professional artist, avid hiker and enthusiastic Bruce Trail Conservancy member. Many waterfalls, grand pine forests, silhouetted islands, voluminous skies are her inspiration. Her belief in the interconnectivity of all nature led to the unique labyrinth style she uses to illustrate the constant movement in everything from a waterfall, to a wall of granite. Bruce Trail Inspired 2:
Nov. 10-19
Opening reception:
Nov. 11, 1 to 6 p.m.
The Hub Gallery,
Burlington Centre, 777
Guelph Line, Burlington

Cathy Lorroway:

Cathy's paintings are a creative journey which blend her initial sensory experience painting in pastel on location, with her exploration and imagination in the studio. Inspired by her love of nature, travel, and environmental conservation, she then creates landscapes which convey the atmosphere, light and beauty of a place. Website: cathylorrowayart.com
