Just received your summer issue in the mail! Looking forward to receiving the copies at office; it's a very popular issue! We have already had people calling/stopping by the office for a copy. Thank you for showcasing Grimsby!

Referring to your enthusiastic reader Shirley Boxem of Mulmur, I wholeheartedly agree with her. Your wonderful informative magazine brings people together who appreciate and care for this part of our glorious country. Someone once said "People protect only what they love and can love only what they understand." We all have the God-given stewardship to protect, care for and enjoy our earthly home, also are responsible toward future generations to come. Your readers and subscribers give me that impression.

Erika Hildebrand, Mulmur

During our summer visit to our family in Dundas, I greatly enjoyed reading the summer edition of NEV and in particular the guest column on the Wainfleet bog. For the past ten years I have been a volunteer warden at Natural England's Fenns and Whixall bog near Whitchurch in Shropshire. The two bogs are very similar in the challenges they face and it's great to see both in Shropshire and Ontario the great progress being made to protect and develop these hugely important natural sites and carbon sinks.

On another theme Shropshire has a large Silurian limestone escarpment - Wenlock Edge. A lot shorter than the impressive Niagara Escarpment but nevertheless geologically very similar. If your readers are ever visiting our county they will recognise the similarities.

On board the Chi-Cheemaun... guess where I found the summer edition of NEV? What a lovely surprise to see it available in the gift shop. Of course the Chi-Cheemaun is celebrating 50 years on board and have a display set up outside the lounge level showing photos of previous captains, timetable brochures and many photos of previous ships that sailed these waters + a video presentation.

Just checked out your website, and noticed that there's no listing shown for Oakville in the section "Get Free Copies of Niagara Escarpment Views Here". Your magazine is available at the Central Library, 120 Navy Street, Oakville. I read the most recent issue from cover to cover and found it most informative.

Jerry Wald, by email

I enjoy receiving and reading it from the front to back cover.

After enjoying “free” copies of Niagara Escarpment Views, from Acton Home Hardware for a few years, I have determined that this magazine is definitely worth paying for! My subscription request is attached. Keep up the great work!

George Cook, Acton

We lived in Caledon for 20 years (1996-2015) picking up “Niagara Escarpment” issues along the way for this excellent magazine!

Your article on Flapper Pie brought back fond memories of enjoying it at the curling rink snack bar in Saskatchewan. Natural ice! I had full intentions of clipping the article but unfortunately passed my copy on before doing that. Would it be possible for you to email the page to me. It would be greatly appreciated!! Thank you so much.

I've been feeling very nostalgic about Larkwhistle Gardens many years after my first and only visit, and would love to purchase your Summer 2013 issue covering your lovely article End of An Era.
